Short Description

Chinese Blue and White early 18th Century bowl made during the reign of The Emperor Yongzheng at the kilns at Jingdezhen and having the correct reign marks for the Emperor Yongzheng.

The bowl is mark and period for the Emperor Yongzheng but it is an export piece for Europe although a high status piece.

The decoration to the outside shows figures in front of a pagoda with a garden setting. It is loosely based on the Romance of the Western Chamber

The inside is painted with a boy flying a kite and the underside painted with a six character reign mark inside a double circle.

excellent colour and potting
