

---

Ming - wanli - blue and white saucer

£550

REF: 370953

Diameter: 14 cm (5 1/2")

---

---

Short Description

Chinese late 16th century or very early 17th century Blue and white saucer made during the reign of the Emperor Wanli at Jingdezhen.

Painted to the centre with an aquatic scene of a pair of Geese on the ground and another flying above. They are by a pond with lilies and other aquatic plants. The slightly everted barbed rim is painted with a hatched pattern and cartouches of foliage.

The underside is painted with stylised motifs

The piece has grit still in the glaze to the underside

More Information

---

Year	1573 - 1619
Medium	Porcelain
Country	China
Condition	Overall very good few firing imperfections including a tiny burst bubble to the front and a rough area on the rim